Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 16, 2013, USG Corporation (USG or the Company) entered into a share sale and subscription agreement (the Asia Subscription Agreement) by and among the Company, USG Netherlands Global Holdings B.V., Boral Limited (Boral), Boral International Pty Limited, and Boral Gypsum Asia Sdn Bhd, and a share sale and subscription agreement (the Australasia Subscription Agreement and together with the Asia Subscription Agreement, the Subscription Agreements) by and among the Company, USG Foreign Investments, Ltd., USG Netherlands Global Holdings B.V., Boral, Boral Building Materials Pty Limited, and Boral Australian Gypsum Limited.

Pursuant to the Subscription Agreements and the Shareholders Agreement (as defined below), USG and Boral have agreed to establish a joint venture (the USG Boral Joint Venture) to manufacture, distribute and sell certain building products, mine raw gypsum and sell natural and synthetic gypsum throughout Asia, Australasia and the Middle East (the Territory). The products that USG and Boral expect to manufacture and distribute through the USG Boral Joint Venture include products for wall, ceiling, floor lining and exterior systems that utilize gypsum, wallboard, mineral fiber ceiling tiles, cement board, steel grid and studs, joint compound and other products.

Under the terms of the Subscription Agreements, USG will acquire through its subsidiaries 50% of the equity interest of each of USG Boral Building Products Pte Limited (USG Boral Asia), which will be a newly formed company and the sole shareholder of Boral Gypsum Asia Sdn Bhd (the Boral Asia Business), and Boral Australian Gypsum Limited (the Boral Australia Business and together with the Boral Asia Business, the Boral Business), which will change its name to USG Boral Building Products Pty Limited (USG Boral Australasia). Boral will hold through its subsidiaries the remaining 50% of each of USG Boral Asia and USG Boral Australasia. USG Boral Asia and USG Boral Australasia, together with their respective subsidiaries, will constitute the USG Boral Joint Venture.

The Company expects to fund its investment in the USG Boral Joint Venture through a $500 million cash payment to Boral, the contribution to the USG Boral Joint Venture of certain USG businesses located in the Territory and the grant to the USG Boral Joint Venture of a license to use certain USG intellectual property rights in the Territory. In the event certain performance targets are satisfied by the USG Boral Joint Venture, the Company will also pay Boral earnout payments in the amount of $25 million based on performance during the first three years after closing and up to $50 million based on performance during the first five years after closing. Boral will fund its investment in the USG Boral Joint Venture through the contribution of the Boral Business and the grant to the USG Boral Joint Venture of a license to use certain Boral intellectual property rights in the Territory.

The USG Boral Joint Venture would be operated in accordance with the terms of a shareholders agreement (the Shareholders Agreement) that the Company and its subsidiaries expect to enter into with Boral and its subsidiaries upon the consummation of the Subscription Agreements.

The Shareholders Agreement provides that each of USG and Boral initially will be entitled to appoint four directors (one for each 12.5% interest held in the USG Boral Joint Venture by each shareholder) to the board of directors of each of USG Boral Asia and USG Boral Australasia and one additional local director to the board of USG Boral Asia. The chair of each board of directors is expected to be Jennifer Scanlon, USG's Senior Vice President and President, International, through December 31, 2015. Thereafter, the right to appoint the chair will rotate every two years between USG and Boral. Frederic de Rougemont, the current Chief Executive Officer of the Boral Business, is expected to be the chief executive officer of the USG Boral Joint Venture, and Paul Monzella, Senior Vice President of United States Gypsum Company, is expected to be its chief financial officer. USG and Boral jointly will appoint any future chief executive officer or chief financial officer of the USG Boral Joint Venture.

Generally, any matter considered by the boards of USG Boral Asia and USG Boral Australasia would be approved by a majority vote. Certain specified fundamental matters would be approved only by the unanimous consent of the entire board, including, among other things, approval of a strategic plan and budget for the USG Boral Joint Venture, certain material contracts or transactions involving the joint venture, the declaration of dividends and the appointment of the chief executive officer and chief financial officer. In addition, certain fundamental matters would be approved only by the unanimous consent of those shareholders holding at least a 37.5% interest in the USG Boral Joint Venture (each such shareholder, a Major Shareholder), including, among other things, capital calls, changes to the business, certain material transactions involving the joint venture and matters related to the disposal of intellectual property. Certain other fundamental matters would be approved only by the unanimous consent of those shareholders holding at least a 12.5% interest in the USG Boral Joint Venture, including the issuance of additional securities of either USG Boral Asia or USG Boral Australasia, changes to the targeted dividend policy of the joint venture, matters related to the protection of intellectual property and the winding up of either of USG Boral Asia and USG Boral Australasia. The Shareholders Agreement includes a mechanism for the resolution of a deadlock at either the board or shareholder level. The mechanism would escalate from required negotiations at the USG and Boral parent company level, through mediation and may finally trigger a sale process conducted by a third party sale agent.

Under the Shareholders Agreement, the business of the USG Boral Joint Venture would be conducted in accordance with an annually approved budget and a rolling five-year strategic plan, each subject to approval by the unanimous vote of the boards. The USG Boral Joint Venture would target the distribution of 50% of combined after tax profits to USG and Boral in proportion to their respective ownership interests; provided, however, that the USG Boral Joint Venture would not pay dividends if such payments are, among other things, restricted pursuant to the terms of any credit facilities maintained by the USG Boral Joint Venture, inconsistent with the then-applicable strategic plan, or illegal. It is anticipated that the balance of the combined after tax profits would be retained for reinvestment in the business of the USG Boral Joint Venture. If the USG Boral Joint Venture requires additional funding for its operations and has exhausted all other reasonable alternatives, the shareholders, by unanimous vote of the Major Shareholders, may approve a capital call, provided that generally no shareholder will be obligated to provide additional funding, and provided further that any shareholder that does not provide additional funding in response to an approved capital call may be subject to dilution.

Under the Shareholders Agreement, the USG Boral Joint Venture has the exclusive right to conduct its business in the Territory. In addition, the Shareholders Agreement contains non-competition and non-solicitation provisions applicable to each of USG, Boral and their respective affiliates and confidentiality provisions applicable to all parties.

The Company and Boral have unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the obligations of their respective subsidiaries under the Subscription Agreements and have agreed to indemnify the other party and its subsidiaries for all losses, actions, proceedings and judgments resulting from any default or delay in performance by their respective subsidiaries thereunder. The Shareholders Agreement contains similar guarantee and indemnification provisions.

For a period of seven years following entry into the Shareholders Agreement, subject to certain exceptions, neither USG nor Boral would be permitted to dispose of any of their shares in the USG Boral Joint Venture without the written consent of the other shareholder. Thereafter, USG or Boral would be permitted to dispose of all (but not less than all) of their respective shares in the USG Boral Joint Venture in accordance with certain preemptive rights of the other party.

Upon the occurrence of certain events of default, including a change of control of USG or Boral or certain of their affiliates, the non-defaulting shareholder would have the right to purchase all (but not less than all) of the defaulting shareholder's shares in the USG Boral Joint Venture at fair market value, as determined in accordance with the Shareholders Agreement. The Shareholders Agreement will be terminable at any time by USG's written agreement with Boral or upon a shareholder becoming the sole shareholder of all interests in the USG Boral Joint Venture.

USG intends to fund the cash portion of its investment in the USG Boral Joint Venture with up to $150 million of cash on hand and $350 million of long term debt. In addition, on October 16, 2013, USG entered into a bridge commitment letter (the Bridge Commitment Letter) with Goldman Sachs Lending Partners LLC and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (collectively, the Bridge Commitment Lenders) and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, pursuant to which the Bridge Commitment Lenders have committed to provide, in the event necessary, unsecured senior increasing rate bridge loans in an aggregate principal amount of $350 million on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Bridge Commitment Letter. The obligation of the Bridge Commitment Lenders to provide any debt financing under the Bridge Commitment Letter is subject to certain customary conditions. The final termination date for the Bridge Commitment Letter is February 17, 2014. USG will not draw any bridge loans under the facility contemplated by the Bridge Commitment Letter if USG secures a sufficient amount of long-term debt financing necessary to fund the cash portion of the investment from other sources.

As an ongoing operation, it is intended that the USG Boral Joint Venture will be funded from its net cash flow from operations and third-party financing.

In connection with the closing of the USG Boral Joint Venture transaction, the parties will also enter into various ancillary agreements. These ancillary agreements include certain intellectual property license agreements, which will govern the USG Boral Joint Venture's use of USG and Boral intellectual property, and transition services agreements, pursuant to which the parties will, on a transitional basis, provide the USG Boral Joint Venture with certain support services and other assistance after closing.

The Subscription Agreements contain customary representations and warranties made by each of USG, Boral and their respective subsidiaries party thereto, and USG, Boral and their respective subsidiaries have also agreed to various covenants in the Subscription Agreements, including, among other things, covenants (i) to conduct their respective material operations in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and (ii) not to take certain actions prior to the closing of the USG Boral Joint Venture transaction without prior consent of the other.

USG currently expects to close on the USG Boral Joint Venture transaction in the first quarter of 2014, with a targeted closing date of January 31, 2014. The closing of the USG Boral Joint Venture transaction is subject to certain customary conditions precedent, including, among other things, receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and third party consents.

The foregoing description of the Subscription Agreements and the Shareholders Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Asia Subscription Agreement, the Australasia Subscription Agreement and the form of Shareholders Agreement, respectively, which are filed as Exhibit 2.1, Exhibit 2.2 and Exhibit 10.1 hereto, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

The Subscription Agreements and form of Shareholders Agreement have been included as exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K to provide investors and security holders with information regarding their respective terms. They are not intended to provide any other financial information about the parties thereto or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Subscription Agreements or the Shareholders Agreement are made only for purposes of those agreements and as of specific dates; are solely for the benefit of the parties thereto; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by such parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties thereto instead of establishing these matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties to the Subscription Agreements or the Shareholders Agreement or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the dates of the Subscription Agreements or the Shareholders Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the parties thereto.
