The following letter was sent on September 22, 2014 by Allergan, Inc. (Allergan) to Michael Pearson, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (Valeant) in connection with correspondence from Mr. Pearson to Allergan on September 22, 2014:

Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc.

Dear Mike:

Thank you for your September 22, 2014 correspondence, which Allergan's Board of Directors has reviewed and discussed. While we acknowledge your effort as a positive engagement, we continue to conclude that Valeant's offer is grossly inadequate and substantially undervalues Allergan, from both the outset of this matter and particularly in consideration of the enhancements Allergan recently made to its anticipated business results. Far from being baseless attacks, Allergan has relied on its knowledge of Valeant, its deep understanding of the pharmaceutical industry and the needs of physicians and patients to express legitimate concerns regarding the sustainability of Valeant's business model, its opaque financial disclosures and its ability to successfully manage and invest in market leading franchises of global scale. Instead of creating an unrivaled platform for growth and value creation in healthcare, as you suggest, we believe that the application of Valeant's business model to Allergan would erode and ultimately destroy considerable stockholder value. Valeant has not allayed Allergan's concerns in any meaningful way.

Importantly, we disagree with your statement that stockholder consent for the special meeting correlates with support for a business combination between Allergan and Valeant. Over the past several months, Allergan has maintained an ongoing dialogue with its major stockholders. A substantial number of stockholders who consented to the special meeting have informed Allergan that they share Allergan's perspectives on Valeant and its offer and have no intention of voting in favor of the proposal to remove Allergan's directors. To the contrary, their consent related solely to a desire to adhere to best practices in connection with corporate governance and the stockholder franchise, which Allergan respects and appreciates.

We very much look forward to the special meeting on December 18th and to continuing to deliver exceptional value for Allergan's stockholders.

Very truly yours,

David E.I. Pyott
Chairman of the Board and
Chief Executive Officer

Lead Independent Director

Allergan Issues Statement Regarding Recent Valeant Correspondence

IRVINE, Calif. (BUSINESS WIRE) Allergan, Inc. (NYSE: AGN) (Allergan or the Company) today issued a statement regarding recent correspondence between Allergan and Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (NYSE: VRX) (Valeant) that was published by Valeant:

Allergan's Board of Directors and management team understand that the ongoing situation with Valeant and its partner, Pershing Square Capital Management, L.P. (Pershing Square), is purely a discussion about who can deliver greater value to Allergan's stockholders. We have been very clear in our belief that we can create more value than Valeant's offer and our recent actions have been focused on achieving that goal. Specifically, since Valeant first made its unsolicited proposal to acquire Allergan on April 22, 2014, Allergan's leading growth trajectory has been accelerated further through:

Operational excellence, with Allergan demonstrating a continuation of the significant momentum in its businesses that began in early 2013, driven by strong double digit sales growth and numerous regulatory approvals around the world;

Outstanding sales growth in the second quarter of 2014, with significant contributions from nearly all of Allergan's businesses and major products, translating into the greatest increase in absolute dollar sales during any quarter in the Company's 64 year history;

Exceeding and raising guidance, with Allergan again delivering sales and earnings per share (EPS) growth above the high end of expectations, continuing the Company's longstanding and consistent track record of delivering superior results; and

A restructuring and value creation plan that will significantly reduce costs by approximately $475 million annually relative to Allergan's prior strategic plan, while preserving the strength of the Company's R&D pipeline and its ability to deliver double digit sales growth during the next five years. Over the same five year period, Allergan expects to generate compounded annual adjusted EPS growth of more than 20 percent, which translates into $10.00 per share of adjusted EPS in 2016. Importantly, Allergan's strategic plan will also generate considerable free cash flow of approximately $18 billion during the period, which provides significant upside to current EPS targets.

Allergan has taken all of these actions while maintaining its substantial flexibility to deliver even greater value to stockholders. To that end, the Company will continue to act in its stockholders' best interests by taking all appropriate steps to accomplish that objective, even in the face of litigation threats made by Pershing Square on September 23, 2014.

Goldman, Sachs & Co. and BofA Merrill Lynch are serving as financial advisors to the Company and Latham & Watkins, Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A. and Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz are serving as legal counsel to the Company.
