Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 15, 2017, LHC Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Almost Family, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Almost Family), and Hammer Merger Sub, Inc., a newly-formed Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (Merger Sub), providing for a merger of equals business combination of the Company and Almost Family. The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Almost Family (the Merger), with Almost Family continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

The respective boards of directors of the Company and Almost Family have unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby.

Merger Consideration

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, the stockholders of Almost Family will be entitled to receive 0.9150 shares of the Company common stock for each share of Almost Family common stock, plus the cash equivalent of any fractional share. Upon the closing of the Merger, the Company stockholders will own approximately 58.5% and the Almost Family stockholders will own approximately 41.5% of the combined company.

Also, each outstanding stock option of Almost Family will be converted into an option to purchase 0.9150 shares of the Company common stock at an exercise price per share equal to the quotient of the exercise price of the Almost Family option divided by 0.9150, and the option shall otherwise remain subject to the same vesting terms and other conditions. In addition, each outstanding share of restricted stock of Almost Family will be converted into a restricted share of the Company subject to the same vesting terms and other conditions (except that the performance condition of performance-based stock awards will be deemed satisfied and the shares will vest solely on the basis of time).

Registration and Listing of the Company Common Stock

The Company and Almost Family will prepare, and the Company will cause to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), a registration statement on Form S-4 in connection with the issuance of the shares of the Company common stock being issued in the Merger (the Form S-4), which will include as a prospectus a joint proxy statement relating to the Company's stockholders meeting to approve the issuance of the shares of the Company common stock in the Merger and an amendment to the Company certificate of incorporation to increase the Company's authorized shares of common stock and Almost Family's stockholders meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement (the Joint Proxy Statement).

The shares of the Company common stock to be issued in the Merger will be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market and continue to trade under the LHCG ticker symbol.

Governance Matters

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon consummation of the Merger, the board of directors of the Company will consist of 10 members, composed of (i) five independent directors selected by the Company, (ii) four independent directors selected by Almost Family and (iii) Keith G. Myers (the current chief executive officer and chairman of the Company) (the Reconstituted Board). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon completion of the Merger, Keith G. Myers will serve as chairman of the Reconstituted Board.

Furthermore, at the closing of the Merger, Keith G. Myers will serve as the chief executive officer and chairman of the combined company, Donald D. Stelly, current president and chief operating officer of the Company, will serve as the president and chief operating officer of the combined company, Joshua L. Proffitt, current executive vice president and chief financial officer of the Company, will serve as the chief financial officer of the combined company and Steve Guenther, current president and principal financial officer of Almost Family, will serve as the chief strategy officer of the combined company and president of Almost Family. William B. Yarmuth will step down as Chairman, a director and Chief Executive Officer of Almost Family at the closing of the Merger and will serve the combined company as a special advisor.

In connection with its approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, the Company board of directors also approved an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to increase the amount of the authorized shares of the Company common stock, which amendment will be submitted to the Company stockholders for approval at the Company stockholders meeting to approve the issuance of the shares of the Company common stock in the Merger.

Conditions to the Merger

Completion of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including, among others: (i) approval by the Company's stockholders of the issuance of the common shares to be issued in the Merger, (ii) adoption of the Merger Agreement by Almost Family's stockholders, (iii) the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (iv) the absence of any material injunction or legal restraint prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, (v) the registration statement on Form S-4 used to register the common shares to be issued as consideration for the Merger having been declared effective by the SEC, (vi) the listing of the common shares on the NASDAQ having been authorized and (vii) the receipt by each of the Company and Almost Family of a written opinion from its respective tax counsel that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization under the Internal Revenue Code. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon the other party's representations and warranties being true and correct, the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement and an absence of the other party having suffered a material adverse effect.

Certain Other Terms of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement contains mutual customary representations and warranties made by each of the Company and Almost Family, and also contains mutual customary pre-closing covenants, including covenants, among others, (i) to conduct its businesses in all material respects in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with past practice and to refrain from taking certain actions without the other party's consent, (ii) not to solicit, initiate, or knowingly encourage or facilitate any inquiry, proposal or offer of an alternative transaction, (iii) subject to certain exceptions, not to participate in any discussions or negotiations or furnish any non-public information with respect to any inquiry, proposal or offer of an alternative transaction, (iv) subject to certain exceptions, not to withdraw the support of its Board of Directors for the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and (v) to use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain governmental, regulatory and third party approvals. In addition, the Merger Agreement contains covenants that require each of the Company and Almost Family to call and hold a special stockholders meeting and, subject to certain exceptions, require the Board of Directors of each of the Company and Almost Family to recommend that its stockholders approve the issuance of the shares of the Company common stock in the Merger, in the case of the Company, and, adopt the Merger Agreement, in the case of Almost Family.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Almost Family, including if the Merger is not consummated on or before July 1, 2018 (subject to extension to October 1, 2018 in certain circumstances) and if the required approval of the stockholders of either the Company or Almost Family is not obtained. The Merger Agreement further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including the termination of the Merger Agreement by the Company or Almost Family as a result of an adverse change in the recommendation of the other party's board of directors, the Company may be required to pay to Almost Family, or Almost Family may be required to pay to the Company, as applicable, a termination fee of $30 million. Further, if the Merger Agreement is terminated as a result of the stockholders of either the Company or Almost Family failing to approve the transaction, the Company may be required to reimburse to Almost Family, or Almost Family may be required to reimburse to the Company, the other party's expenses in connection with the proposed transaction, up to a maximum of $5 million.

The Merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, so that none of the Company, Almost Family, Merger Sub or any of Almost Family's stockholders generally will recognize any gain or loss on the issuance or receipt of the Company common stock in the Merger, except that Almost Family stockholders generally may recognize gain or loss with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of the Company common stock.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement and the above description of the Merger Agreement have been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Almost Family or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement (i) were made by the parties thereto only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; (ii) were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement; (iii) may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement (such disclosures include information that has been included in public disclosures, as well as additional non-public information); (iv) may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts; and (v) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, Almost Family or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Additionally, the representations, warranties, covenants, conditions and other terms of the Merger Agreement may be subject to subsequent waiver or modification. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other documents that are filed with the SEC.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On November 16, 2017, the Company and Almost Family issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the joint press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, on November 16, 2017, the Company and Almost Family will hold a joint investor conference call (with simultaneous webcast) to announce the execution of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the investor presentation used on the conference call regarding the proposed transaction is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward Looking Statements

This report, and the documents incorporated herein by reference, contain forward-looking statements (as defined in the Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) regarding, among other things, future events or the future financial performance of the Company and Almost Family. Words such as anticipate, expect, project, intend, believe, estimates, may, could, should and words and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future plans, actions or events identify forward-looking statements. The closing of the proposed transaction is subject to the approval of the stockholders of the Company and Almost Family, regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions. There is no assurance that such conditions will be met or that the proposed transaction will be consummated within the expected time frame, or at all. Forward-looking statements relating to the proposed transaction include, but are not limited to: statements about the benefits of the proposed transaction, including anticipated synergies and cost savings and future financial and operating results; the Company's and Almost Family's plans, objectives, expectations, projections and intentions; the expected timing of completion of the proposed transaction; and other statements relating to the transaction that are not historical facts. Forward-looking statements are based on information currently available to the Company and Almost Family and involve estimates, expectations and projections. Investors are cautioned that all such forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, and important factors could cause actual events or results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements. With respect to the proposed transaction, these risks, uncertainties and factors include, but are not limited to: the risk that the Company or Almost Family may be unable to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals required for the transaction, or that required governmental and regulatory approvals may delay the transaction or result in the imposition of conditions that could reduce the anticipated benefits from the proposed transaction or cause the parties to abandon the proposed transaction; the risk that required stockholder approvals may not be obtained; the risks that the other condition(s) to closing of the transaction may not be satisfied; the length of time necessary to consummate the proposed transaction, which may be longer than anticipated for various reasons; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; the risk that the cost savings, synergies and growth from the proposed transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; the diversion of management time on transaction-related issues; the risk that costs associated with the integration of the businesses are higher than anticipated; and litigation risks related to the transaction. With respect to the businesses of the Company and/or Almost Family, including if the proposed transaction is consummated, these risks, uncertainties and factors include, but are not limited to: changes in, or failure to comply with, existing government regulations that impact the Company's and/or Almost Family's businesses; legislative proposals for healthcare reform; the impact of changes in future interpretations of fraud, anti-kickback, or other laws; changes in Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement levels; changes in laws and regulations with respect to Accountable Care

Organizations; changes in the marketplace and regulatory environment for Health Risk Assessments; decrease in demand for the Company's or Almost Family's services; the potential impact of the announcement or consummation of the proposed transaction on relationships with customers, joint venture and other partners, competitors, management and other employees, including the loss of significant contracts or reduction in revenues associated with major payor sources; ability of customers to pay for services; risks related to any current or future litigation proceedings; potential audits and investigations by government and regulatory agencies, including the impact of any negative publicity or litigation; the ability to attract new customers and retain existing customers in the manner anticipated; the ability to hire and retain key personnel; the risk that the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect and/or risks related to the ability to obtain financing; increased competition from other entities offering similar services as offered by the Company and Almost Family; reliance on and integration of information technology systems; ability to protect intellectual property rights; impact of security breaches, cyber-attacks or fraudulent activity on the Company's or Almost Family's reputation; the risks associated with assumptions the parties make in connection with the parties' critical accounting estimates and legal proceedings; the risks associated with the combined company's expansion strategy, the successful integration of recent acquisitions, and if necessary, the ability to relocate or restructure current facilities; and the potential impact of an economic downturn or effects of tax assessments or tax positions taken, risks related to goodwill and other intangible asset impairment, tax adjustments, anticipated tax rates, benefit or retirement plan costs, or other regulatory compliance costs.

Additional information concerning other risk factors is also contained in the Company's and Almost Family's most recently filed Annual Reports on Form 10-K, subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K, and other filings with the SEC.

Many of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions are beyond the Company's or Almost Family's ability to control or predict. Because of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Furthermore, forward-looking statements speak only as of the information currently available to the parties on the date they are made, and neither the Company nor Almost Family undertakes any obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this report. Neither the Company nor Almost Family gives any assurance (1) that either the Company or Almost Family will achieve its expectations, or (2) concerning any result or the timing thereof. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the Company, Almost Family, the proposed transaction, the combined company or other matters and attributable to the Company or Almost Family or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above.
