- EBITDA of USD466.1 million in the third quarter 2017, 6% lower sequentially, with higher shipments and lower EBITDA margin.
- Earnings per American Depositary Share (ADS)³ of USD0.99 in the third quarter 2017, a sequential decrease of USD0.28 per ADS.

1

1 EBITDA in the third quarter 2017 equals operating income of USD349.8 million adjusted to exclude depreciation and amortization of USD116.3 million.

2 Consolidated EBITDA divided by steel shipments.

3 Each American Depositary Share (ADS) represents 10 shares of Ternium's common stock. Results are based on a weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding (net of treasury shares) of 1,963,076,776.

- Capital expenditures of USD100.4 million in the third quarter 2017, slightly up from USD98.6 million in the second quarter 2017.
- Net cash use of USD1.6 billion in connection with the acquisition of CSA Siderúrgica do Atlântico (CSA) and related transactions.
- Consolidation of Ternium Brasil (formerly known as CSA) into Ternium's financial statements, starting in September 2017.
- Net debt position of USD2.7 billion at the end of September 2017, up from USD1.2 billion at the end of June 2017 and equivalent to 1.5 times net debt to last twelve months EBITDA.

Ternium's operating income in the third quarter 2017 was USD349.8 million, a USD43.0 million decrease compared to operating income in the second quarter 2017 due mainly to lower operating margin⁴, partially offset by higher shipments. The company's shipments were 429,000 tons higher sequentially as a result of a 458,000-ton increase in Other Markets, mainly due to the consolidation of Ternium Brasil's shipments, and a 67,000-ton increase in the Southern Region reflecting a recovering demand for steel products in the Argentine market. These increases were partially offset by a 95,000-ton decrease in Mexico, due in part to a seasonal slowdown of steel demand in the automotive and HVAC industries. Operating margin decreased sequentially mainly due to a USD53 decline in steel revenue per ton principally related to the consolidation of Ternium Brasil's slabs sales in the third quarter 2017, as realized steel prices did not change significantly. Operating cost per ton⁵ was relatively stable, as it was also affected by the consolidation of Ternium Brasil in the period, which offset higher raw material and purchased slab costs.

Compared to the third quarter 2016, the company's operating income in the third quarter 2017 decreased USD49.3 million, with lower operating margin and higher shipments. Operating margin in the third quarter 2017 decreased year-over-year principally due to USD79 higher steel operating cost per ton, partially offset by USD13 higher steel revenue per ton. Higher realized prices in Mexico and the Southern Region contributed to the increase in steel revenue per ton and higher raw material and purchased slab costs contributed to the increase in steel operating cost per ton. In addition, the consolidation of Ternium Brasil's slabs sales partially offset the above-mentioned increase in steel revenue per ton and operating cost per ton. Shipments were 722,000 tons higher compared to the third quarter 2016, mainly as a result of a 496,000-ton increase in Other Markets, mostly reflecting the consolidation of Ternium Brasil's shipments, a 131,000-ton increase in the Southern Region and a 96,000-ton increase in Mexico.

The company's net income in the third quarter 2017 was USD232.7 million, compared to USD281.8 million in the second quarter 2017. The USD49.0 million decrease in net income was mainly due to the above-mentioned lower operating income and an increase in the effective tax rate, partially offset by lower net financial expenses. The effective tax rate in the third quarter 2017 went back to normal levels after an unusually low effective tax rate in the second quarter 2017 as a result of the non-cash effect on deferred taxes of the fluctuation of the Mexican peso against the US dollar.

Relative to the prior-year-period, net income in the third quarter 2017 decreased USD31.6 million, mainly due to the above mentioned lower operating income.

4 Operating margin is equal to revenue per ton minus operating cost per ton.

5 Operating cost per ton is equal to cost of sales plus SG&A, divided by shipments.

Summary of First Nine Months of 2017 Results

| | | | |
|--|-----------|-----------|-----|
| Steel Shipments (tons) | 8,186,000 | 7,386,000 | 11% |
| Iron Ore Shipments (tons) | 2,676,000 | 2,454,000 | 9% |
| Net Sales (USD million) | 6,782.3 | 5,374.4 | 26% |
| Operating Income (USD million) | 1,106.8 | 895.0 | 24% |
| EBITDA (USD million) | 1,428.8 | 1,198.0 | 19% |
| EBITDA Margin (% of net sales) | 21.1% | 22.3% | |
| EBITDA per Ton (USD) | 174.5 | 162.2 | |
| Income Tax Expense (USD million) | (198.2) | (306.7) | |
| Net Income (USD million) | 824.9 | 562.2 | |
| Equity Holders' Net Income (USD million) | 706.0 | 477.2 | |
| Earnings per ADS (USD) | 3.60 | 2.43 | |

- EBITDA⁶ of USD1.4 billion in the first nine months of 2017, a 19% year-over-year increase mainly as a result of higher shipments and EBITDA per ton.
- Earnings per ADS⁷ of USD3.60 in the first nine months of 2017, a year-over-year increase of USD1.17 per ADS.
- Capital expenditures of USD282.9 million in the first nine months of 2017, down from USD335.0 million in the first nine months of 2016.

Operating income in the first nine months of 2017 was USD1.1 billion, a USD211.8 million increase compared to operating income in the first nine months of 2016 due to higher shipments and slightly higher operating margin, mainly reflecting USD99 higher steel revenue per ton partially offset by USD90 higher steel operating cost per ton. Steel revenue per ton increased year-over-year in Mexico and the Southern Region, and it decreased in Other Markets as a result of the consolidation of Ternium Brasil slab sales partially offset by higher steel prices. The increase in operating cost per ton was related to higher raw material and purchased slab costs, partially offset by the consolidation of Ternium Brasil. Shipments were 800,000 tons higher compared to the first nine months of 2016, reflecting a 504,000-ton increase in Other Markets, mainly as a result of the consolidation of Ternium Brasil's shipments, a 168,000-ton increase in the Southern Region and a 128,000-ton increase in Mexico.

Net income in the first nine months of 2017 was USD824.9 million, compared to net income of USD562.2 million in the first nine months of 2016. The USD262.7 million increase in the year-over-year comparison was mainly due to the above-mentioned higher operating income and an unusually low effective tax rate, partially offset by higher net financial expenses. The effective tax rate was affected by the non-cash effect on deferred taxes of the fluctuation of the Mexican peso against the US dollar, which appreciated 14% in the first nine months of 2017 and depreciated 12% in the first nine months of 2016. Higher net financial expenses included an USD88.9 million negative year-over-year difference in net foreign exchange results mainly related to the effect of the fluctuations of the Mexican peso against the US dollar on a net short local currency position in Ternium's Mexican subsidiaries.

6 EBITDA in the first nine months of 2017 equals operating income of USD1.1 billion adjusted to exclude depreciation and amortization of USD321.9 million.

7 Each American Depositary Share (ADS) represents 10 shares of Ternium's common stock. Results are based on a weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding (net of treasury shares) of 1,963,076,776.

Outlook

The full-quarter consolidation of Ternium Brasil in the fourth quarter 2017 will have a sequentially increasing effect on Ternium's shipments, and a sequentially decreasing effect on the company's average price and cost per ton due to the incorporation of Ternium Brasil's slab sales into Ternium's higher value-added sales mix.

Ternium's expectations of a strong second half of the year in the Argentine market materialized in the third quarter, with a significant sequential increase in shipments. A markedly better business environment is fostering a gradual recovery in most sectors of the Argentine domestic economy, with the household appliance and automotive industries joining the previously ascendant agribusiness industry, public infrastructure investment, and shale oil and gas fields development sectors.

Ternium anticipates lower operating income in the fourth quarter of the year compared to the third quarter 2017, with higher steel shipments partially offset by lower operating margin. Shipments will increase sequentially as a result of the full-quarter consolidation of Ternium Brasil, partially offset by seasonally lower shipments in Mexico. The company expects revenue per ton to decrease in the fourth quarter, reflecting a lower value-added product mix due to Ternium Brasil's slab sales and decreasing steel prices in the Mexican market as a result of a destocking process in the US. In addition, Ternium anticipates cost per ton to be slightly lower sequentially, mainly due to the full-quarter consolidation of Ternium Brasil, partially offset by higher cost per ton in Argentina.

Analysis of Third Quarter 2017 Results

Cost of sales was USD1.9 billion in the third quarter 2017, an increase of USD625.7 million compared to the third quarter 2016. This was principally due to a USD578.9 million, or 64%, increase in raw material and consumables used, mainly reflecting higher iron ore, coking coal, zinc, scrap, and purchased slabs costs, and a 31% increase in steel shipments volume; and to a USD46.8 million increase in other costs, mainly including a USD25.8 million increase in labor cost, a USD9.6 million increase in depreciation of property, plant and equipment and a USD9.4 million increase in services and fees. The consolidation of Ternium Brasil in the third quarter 2017 affected all of the above-mentioned components of the cost of sales, as well as the selling, general and administrative expenses.

Operating cost increased 47% in the third quarter 2017, due to a 13% increase in cost per ton and a 31% increase in shipments. | Revenue per ton (USD/ton) | 76 | 61 | 24% |

Operating cost increased 12% year-over-year mainly due to the above-mentioned 9% increase in shipment volumes and a relatively stable operating cost per ton.

EBITDA in the first nine months of 2017 was USD1.4 billion, or 21.1% of net sales, compared with USD1.2 billion, or 22.3% of net sales, in the first nine months of 2016.

Net financial results were a USD135.8 million loss in the first nine months of 2017, compared to a USD34.2 million loss in the first nine months of 2016. Net foreign exchange results included an USD88.9 million negative year-over-year difference in net foreign exchange results mainly related to the effect of the fluctuations of the Mexican peso against the US dollar on a net short local currency position in Ternium's Mexican subsidiaries. In the first nine months of 2017, the Mexican peso appreciated 14% against the US dollar, compared to a 12% depreciation in the first nine months of 2016. Change in fair value of financial instruments included in net financial results was a USD12.3 million gain in the first nine months of 2017 compared to an USD18.0 million gain in the first nine months of 2016.

Equity in results of non-consolidated companies was a gain of USD52.1 million in the first nine months of 2017, compared to a gain of USD8.1 million in the first nine months of 2016, mainly due to better results from Ternium's investment in Usiminas.

Income tax expense in the first nine months of 2017 was USD198.2 million, or 19% of income before income tax, compared to an income tax expense of USD306.7 million, or 35% of income before income tax in the first nine months of 2016. Effective tax rate in the first nine months of 2017 included a non-cash gain on deferred taxes due to the 14% appreciation of the Mexican peso against the US dollar during the period.

Cash Flow and Liquidity

The increase in the value of inventories in the first nine months 2017 was mainly due to USD184.9 million higher costs of slabs, goods in process and finished goods principally as a result of the pass-through of higher purchased slab, scrap, coal and iron ore prices, USD55.7 million higher steel volume, mainly reflecting higher operating rates in Siderar partially offset by lower volume in Ternium Brasil, and USD85.6 million higher prices and volume of raw materials and other. In addition, during the first nine months 2017, Ternium made income tax payments in excess of income tax accruals of an aggregate USD317.0 million.
