Severance Agreements of John DeSimone and Desmond Walsh

On February 23, 2011, Herbalife International of America, Inc. (the "Company"), a subsidiary of Herbalife, Ltd. ("Parent"), entered into a severance agreement (the "DeSimone Severance Agreement") with John DeSimone, the Company's Chief Financial Officer. On February 25, 2011, the Company entered into an amended and restated severance agreement effective as of February 23, 2011 (the "Walsh Severance Agreement" and, collectively with the DeSimone Severance Agreement, the "Severance Agreements") with Desmond Walsh, the Company's President, that supercedes his existing severance agreement in its entirety.

The Severance Agreements provide for substantially identical severance benefits in the event that the employment of Mr. DeSimone or Mr. Walsh is terminated by the Company without Cause or is resigned by him with Good Reason. If Mr. DeSimone or Mr. Walsh is terminated by the Company without "Cause" or resigns for "Good Reason," each as defined in his respective Severance Agreement, he will be paid a lump sum amount equal to two times his then-current annual salary, in addition to all other accrued but unpaid entitlements. Under these circumstances, the Company will also provide him with outplacement services for up to six months by a provider selected and paid for by the Company in an amount not to exceed $20,000. If Mr. DeSimone or Mr. Walsh is terminated by the Company without Cause, resigns for Good Reason, or retires, dies, or resigns as a result of a disability, he will be entitled to receive a pro rata bonus payment, at such time bonuses are paid to the Company's other senior executives, based on the number of months worked in the applicable year. As a precondition to the Company's obligation to pay the amounts described above, Mr. DeSimone or Mr. Walsh must execute a general release of claims.

If the effective date of such termination without Cause or resignation for Good Reason occurs during a "trading blackout" or "quiet period" with respect to the Company's common shares or if the Company determines, upon the advice of legal counsel, that Mr. DeSimone or Mr. Walsh may not to trade in the Company's common shares on the effective date of such termination due to his possession of material nonpublic information, and in each case the restriction or prohibition continues for a period of at least twenty consecutive calendar days, he will be entitled to pay the exercise price and/or any tax withholding obligation payable on the exercise of his stock options or stock appreciation rights by tendering common shares of the Company and/or instructing the Company to withhold from the common shares otherwise issuable on exercise a number of common shares having a fair market value equal to the exercise price and/or tax withholding obligation.

In addition, in the event of a Change of Control (as defined in Parent's 2005 Stock Incentive Plan), all of Mr. DeSimone and Mr. Walsh's then unvested equity awards granted prior to the date of the Severance Agreement shall become vested and exercisable.

The Severance Agreements also provide for non-solicitation covenants applicable following the termination of employment for a period of two years, as well as standard confidentiality and non-disparagement covenants, subject to certain limitations.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the DeSimone Severance Agreement and the Walsh Severance Agreement, which are incorporated herein by reference and a copy of each of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2, respectively.
