5.02(e)

D.R. Horton, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), recently completed its review of its equity and incentive compensation plans, including the D.R. Horton Deferred Compensation Plan and the D.R. Horton, Inc. Amended and Restated Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan No. 2 (collectively the "Plans"), to ensure that payments made under those Plans remain either exempt from or in compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code ("Section 409A"). This review sought to maintain the Plans in accordance with Section 409A and the treasury regulations issued thereunder, including the mechanics of deferral and payout elections and the time and form of payment. The review also reexamined the overall plan design in order to reflect the current policies established by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") and the Company. Executive officers of the Company are participants in both Plans, and directors are also eligible to participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan.

On December 10, 2008, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors approved the amendments to and restatements of the Plans. Each of these Plans amends, restates and supersedes its respective prior plan in its entirety. Each amended and restated plan was modified to address the provisions of Section 409A, and to distinguish between post-2004 benefits subject to Section 409A and accounts that were earned and vested on or before December 31, 2004 that are "grandfathered accounts" not subject to Section 409A.

The Plans were also amended to include a default rule for the lump sum payout of distributions after separation from service (absent a timely election for an alternative payout), and impose a six-month delay upon distributions made by reason of separation from service (including retirement) of accounts subject to Section 409A to persons who are "specified employees" under Section 409A unless permitted exceptions apply.

The Deferred Compensation Plan was also amended to modify provisions relating to (1) partial year eligibility, (2) installment eligibility age, and (3) the Section 409A transition rule regarding the timing and form of distributions elected on or prior to December 31, 2008. The Deferred Compensation Plan was also amended to clarify that participants are eligible to delay distributions until age 62 only if he or she has attained age 50 with 10 years of service.

The Deferred Compensation Plan was further amended, with respect to amounts earned and vested prior to January 1, 2005 (“pre-2005 Account”), to provide that any participant terminating after January 1, but before June 30, would receive distributions of his or her pre-2005 Account on July 1 of the following year. Similarly, for the pre-2005 Account, any participant terminating after July 1, but before December 31, would be paid his or her pre-2005 Account on January 1 of the second calendar year following the year of termination. Furthermore, the Deferred Compensation Plan was amended to provide, for amounts earned or vested on or after January 1, 2005 (“post-2005 Account”), that any participant terminating after January 1, but before July 1, or any participant terminating on or after July 1, but before January 1, would receive his or her post-2005 Account on January 1 of the calendar year following the year of his or her termination, or on July 1 of the calendar year following the year of his or her termination, respectively.

The Deferred Compensation Plan was amended to require payout elections be made annually by the end of the year before the year in which the related services will be performed. Provisions were also added to restrict changes to the time and form of payments under the Deferred Compensation Plan, pursuant to Section 409A guidance. Pursuant to these revisions an election change may be made only if (1) the election is made more than 12 months before payment is scheduled to begin, (2) the election is effective no earlier than 12 months after it is made, and (3) the payment be deferred for at least 5 more years.

The above description of the provisions of the amended and restated Plans is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plans, which have been filed as exhibits to this report.
