Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On June 9, 2010, CrowdGather, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the “Registrant”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated June 9, 2010 among the Registrant, Adisn, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Adisn”) and the Registrant’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Adisn Acquisition Corp. (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which Adisn Acquisition Corp. shall merge with and into Adisn and Adisn will survive as the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Registrant (“Merger”). Pursuant to the Merger, the shareholders of Adisn (“Adisn Stockholders”) received 4,621,849 shares of common stock of the Registrant (the “Merger Shares”), subject to the escrow obligations of the Securities Escrow Agreement, as discussed below, plus a right to receive the Earn-Out Shares, as defined below, if and when they become issuable.

In connection with the Merger, issued and outstanding warrants to purchase 825,000 shares of Adisn common stock became warrants to purchase shares of common stock of Registrant. The exercise price and number of shares was proportionately adjusted based on the exchange ratio for Adisn common stock issued in connection with the Merger, such that the holder of the warrants will have the right to purchase 161,997 shares of the Registrant’s common stock at $1.018 per share.

The Merger Shares will be issued to the Adisn Stockholders in a transaction which the Registrant believes satisfies the requirements of that exemption from the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, which exemption is specified by the provisions of Section 4(2) of that act and Regulation D promulgated pursuant to that act by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Merger Agreement also provides that the Registrant will issue an additional $1,000,000 to the Adisn Stockholders, which shall be payable in shares of the Registrant’s common stock (“Earn-Out Shares”) to be distributed on a pro-rata basis. The number of Earn-Out Shares to be issued to the Adisn Stockholders shall be calculated by dividing $1,000,000 by the 20-day volume weighted average price of the Registrant’s common stock, the 20th day of which shall be the trading day immediately preceding the one year anniversary date of June 9, 2010. The Earn-Out Shares will only be issued to the Adisn Stockholders if, during the next twelve months, Adisn generates gross revenues, as defined according to GAAP, of more than $1,562,500.

The Merger Agreement further provides that in the event the Registrant files a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Adisn Stockholders has the right to request that the Registrant include in that registration statement the shares of common stock then held by Adisn Stockholders.

A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1. This brief description of the Merger Agreement is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement as attached as Exhibit 10.1.

Securities Escrow Agreement

As an inducement to the Registrant to enter into the Merger Agreement, on June 9, 2010, Registrant and certain of the Adisn Stockholders entered into a Securities Escrow Agreement (“Securities Escrow Agreement”), pursuant to which those Adisn Stockholders agreed to place stock certificates of the Registrant’s common stock representing an aggregate of two million one hundred seventy two thousand six hundred three (2,172,603) shares of common stock (“Escrow Shares”) into escrow for the benefit of the Registrant (i) to secure the indemnification obligations in Section 10(c)(i) and (iii) of the Merger Agreement, and (ii) in the event the Registrant fails to achieve certain financial performance thresholds for the six and twelve month periods following the closing of the Merger.

This brief description of the Securities Escrow Agreement is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Securities Escrow Agreement as attached as Exhibit 10.2.

Lock-up Agreements

Concurrently with the closing of the Merger Agreement, the Registrant entered into Lock-up Agreements with certain of the Adisn Stockholders for the Merger Shares (“Lock-up Agreements for Merger Shares”). The Adisn Stockholders agreed that during the period from the closing of the Merger Agreement on June 9, 2010, until the first anniversary thereof, the Adisn Stockholders will not sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of more than (i) fifty percent of the Merger Shares during the first three month period after the six month period from June 9, 2010, and (ii) fifty percent of the Merger Shares during the second three month period after the six month period from June 9, 2010, other than in connection with an offer made to all stockholders of the Registrant in connection with merger, consolidation, or similar transaction involving the Registrant.

Concurrently with the closing of the Merger Agreement, the Registrant entered into Lock-up Agreements with certain of the Adisn Stockholders for the Escrow Shares (“Lock-up Agreements for Escrow Shares”). The Holder hereby agrees that during the period from the closing of the Merger Agreement on June 9, 2010, until the eighteen month anniversary thereof, the Adisn Stockholders will not sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of more than (i) fifty percent of the Escrow Shares during the first three month period after the twelve month period from June 9, 2010, and (ii) fifty percent of the Escrow Shares during the second three month period after the twelve month period from June 9, 2010, other than in connection with an offer made to all stockholders of the Registrant in connection with merger, consolidation, or similar transaction involving the Registrant.

The form of the Lock-up Agreements for Merger Shares is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3. The form of the Lock-up Agreements for Merger Shares is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.4. The brief descriptions of each of the Lock-up Agreements are not intended to be complete and are qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each of the Lock-up Agreements as attached as exhibits.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Adisn, Inc.
Long Beach, California

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Adisn, Inc. (a Delaware corporation) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related statements of operations, stockholder's equity (deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Adisn, Inc. as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As more fully described in Note 3, the Company has incurred recurring operating losses and has an accumulated deficit. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 3. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that may result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

ADISN, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2009 AND 2008

1. BUSINESS AND ORGANIZATION

Adisn, Inc. (the Company), was originally incorporated in the State of Delaware on February 12, 2007 as Magic Cow, Inc. On March 25, 2008, the Company changed its name to Adisn, Inc. The Company provides targeted advertising and marketing services for customers engaged in interactive media advertising, including online and mobile properties.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses. Actual amounts could materially differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased, to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The Company is subject to credit risk as it extends credit to its customers. The Company extends credit to its customers, mostly on an unsecured basis after performing certain credit analysis. The Company's typical terms are net 30 days. The Company periodically reviews the creditworthiness of its customers and provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to an allowance for doubtful accounts based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Accounts that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the allowance for doubtful accounts and a credit to accounts receivable. As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company considered all outstanding receivables fully collectible, therefore an allowance of $-0- has been provided for.

ADISN, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2009 AND 2008

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company currently maintains substantially all of its day-to-day operating cash with a major financial institution. At times, cash balances may be in excess of the $250,000 amount insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Management believes the financial risk associated with these balances is minimal and has not experienced any losses to date.

As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, approximately 95% of outstanding receivables were accounted for by five (5) and two (2) customers, respectively. In addition, these customers accounted for approximately 79% and 60% of sales for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company is required to estimate the fair value of all financial instruments included on its balance sheet. The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, advances, prepaids, accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their fair value due to the short period to maturity of these instruments.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for major additions and improvements are capitalized and minor replacements, maintenance, and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. When property and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is included in the results of operations for the respective period. Depreciation of property and equipment is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from three to ten years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset or the related lease term.

ADISN, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2009 AND 2008

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Patents and Intangibles

The Company capitalizes certain costs associated with patents and other intangible assets. These costs include legal and registration fees needed to apply for and secure patents. Once a patent is approved, amortization is provided on the straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life or remaining legal life. The Company expenses any administrative costs related to the work on the patents. Intangible assets acquired from other entities or individuals in an “arms length” transaction are recorded at cost.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company reviews the carrying values of its long-lived and intangible assets for possible impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable. In cases where undiscounted expected future cash flows are less than the carrying value, an impairment loss is recognized equal to an amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value of assets. The factors considered by management in performing this assessment include current operating results, trends, and prospects, as well as the effects of obsolescence, demand, competition, and other economic factors. The Company incurred an impairment loss of approximately $9,000 related to the abandonment of certain leasehold improvements during the year ended December 31, 2009 and an impairment loss of approximately $18,000 related to the removal of certain computer equipment and data servers for the year ended December 31, 2008.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when evidence of an arrangement exists; services are delivered and our advertisers or other customers understand the specific nature and terms of the agreed-upon transactions; fee is fixed and determinable; and, collectibility is reasonably assured.

The Company delivers the customer’s advertising materials, which may include rich media, graphic files, RSS feeds, registration streams and/or custom ad campaigns and promotions to various forms of interactive media. Typically, these services are offered on a cost-per-impression basis that enables advertisers to pay us based on the number of times their ads appear to online, mobile and other properties.

The Company also offers its peer recommendation service that generates advertisements or other asset recommendations for its customers by analyzing browse information and other social network data to identify dynamic word relationships that would aid its customers in specific targeted advertising.

The Company reports its revenues on a gross basis principally because it is the primary obligor to its advertisers.

Cost of Revenues

Cost of revenues consists primarily of traffic acquisition costs. Traffic acquisition costs consist of amounts paid to our distribution partners. Cost of revenues also includes the expenses associated with the operation of our data center, including energy and bandwidth costs, as well as content acquisition costs.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are charged to expense as incurred and include software development costs. Accordingly, internal research and development costs are expensed as incurred. In addition, third-party research and development costs are expensed when the contracted work has been performed or as milestone results have been achieved. Company-sponsored research and development costs related to both present and future products are expensed in the period incurred.

Software Development Costs

The Company also expenses software development costs, including costs to develop software products or the software component of products to be marketed to external users, before technological feasibility of such products is reached. Technological feasibility is typically reached shortly before the release of those products and as a result, the development costs incurred after the establishment of technological feasibility and before the release of those products is not material, and accordingly, is expensed as incurred. The costs incurred during the application development stage for these software programs were not material in the years presented.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Stock Based Compensation

The Company recognizes and expenses all share-based payments to employees, including grants of employee stock options, based on their fair values. Share based payment transactions with parties other than employees are based on the fair value of the goods or services received as determined by the Company and the third party.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. The components of the deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as current and non-current based on their characteristics. A valuation allowance is provided for certain deferred tax assets if it is more likely than not that the Company will not realize tax assets through future operations.

Comprehensive Income (Loss)

The Company reports and displays its components of comprehensive income or loss in its financial statements with the same prominence as other financial statement amounts. For the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company had no other component of comprehensive loss other than its net loss as reported within the statements of operations.

FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2009 AND 2008

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued ASC Statement No. 105, the FASB Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (ASC 105). ASC 105 became the single source authoritative nongovernmental U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), superseding existing FASB, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Emerging Issues Task Force, and related accounting literature. ASC 105 reorganized the thousands of GAAP pronouncements into approximately 90 accounting topics and displays them using a consistent structure. Also included is relevant SEC guidance organized using the same topical structure in separate sections. The Company adopted ASC 105 for the financial statements ended December 31, 2009 and 2008. The adoption of ASC 105 did not have an impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In January 2008, the Company adopted FASB ASC 820-10, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures – Overall (ASC 820-10) with respect to its financial assets and liabilities. In February 2008, the FASB issued updated guidance related to fair value measurements, which is included in the Codification in ASC 820-10-55, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures – Overall – Implementation Guidance and Illustrations. The updated guidance provided a one year deferral of the effective date of ASC 820-10 for non-financial assets and non-financial liabilities, except those that are recognized or disclosed in the financial statements at fair value at least annually. Therefore, the Company adopted the provisions of ASC 820-10 for non-financial assets and non-financial liabilities effective January 1, 2009, and such adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations or financial condition.

In June 2009, the Company adopted ASC 855, Subsequent Events (ASC 855). ASC 855 establishes general standards of accounting for and disclosure of events that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. It requires the disclosure of the date through which an entity has evaluated subsequent events and the basis for that date – that is, whether the date represents the date the financials statements were issued or were available to be issued. The disclosure should alert all users of financial statements that an entity has not evaluated subsequent events after the date in the set of financial statements being presented. The adoption of ASC 855 did not have a material impact on Company's results of operations or financial condition.

In August 2009, the FASB issued ASU No. 2009-05, Measuring Liabilities at Fair Value, which provides additional guidance on how companies should measure liabilities at fair value under ASC 820. The ASU clarifies that the quoted price for an identical liability should be used. However, if such information is not available, an entity may use, the quoted price of an identical liability when traded as an asset, quoted prices for similar liabilities or similar liabilities traded as assets, or another valuation technique (such as the market or income approach). The ASU also indicates that the fair value of a liability is not adjusted to reflect the impact of contractual restrictions that prevent its transfer and indicates circumstances in which quoted prices for an identical liability or quoted price for an identical liability traded as an asset may be considered level 1 fair value measurements. In October 2009, the Company adopted the additional guidance under ASU 2009-05 and it did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations or financial condition.

In October 2009, the FASB issued ASU No. 2009-13, Multiple-Deliverable Revenue Arrangements—a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force, that provides amendments to the criteria for separating consideration in multiple-deliverable arrangements. As a result of these amendments, multiple-deliverable revenue arrangements will be separated in more circumstances than under existing generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. The ASU does this by establishing a selling price hierarchy for determining the selling price of a deliverable. The selling price used for each deliverable will be based on vendor-specific objective evidence if available, third-party evidence if vendor-specific objective evidence is not available, or estimated selling price if neither vendor-specific objective evidence nor third-party evidence is available. A vendor will be required to determine its best estimate of selling price in a manner that is consistent with that used to determine the price to sell the deliverable on a standalone basis. This ASU also eliminates the residual method of allocation and will require that arrangement consideration be allocated at the inception of the arrangement to all deliverables using the relative selling price method, which allocates any discount in the overall arrangement proportionally to each deliverable based on its relative selling price. Expanded disclosures of qualitative and quantitative information regarding application of the multiple-deliverable revenue arrangement guidance are also required under the ASU.

ASU No. 2009-13 does not apply to arrangements for which industry specific allocation and measurement guidance exists, such as long-term construction contracts and software transactions. ASU No. 2009-13 is effective beginning January 1, 2011. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this standard on its consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

In October 2009, the FASB issued ASU No. 2009-14, Certain Revenue Arrangements That Include Software Elements—a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force, that reduces the types of transactions that fall within the current scope of software revenue recognition guidance. Existing software revenue recognition guidance requires that its provisions be applied to an entire arrangement when the sale of any products or services containing or utilizing software when the software is considered more than incidental to the product or service. As a result of the amendments included in ASU No. 2009-14, many tangible products and services that rely on software will be accounted for under the multiple-element arrangements revenue recognition guidance rather than under the software revenue recognition guidance. Under the ASU, the following components would be excluded from the scope of software revenue recognition guidance: the tangible element of the product, software products bundled with tangible products where the software components and non-software components function together to deliver the product's essential functionality, and undelivered components that relate to software that is essential to the tangible product's functionality. The ASU also provides guidance on how to allocate transaction consideration when an arrangement contains both deliverables within the scope of software revenue guidance (software deliverables) and deliverables not within the scope of that guidance (non-software deliverables). ASU No. 2009-14 is effective beginning January 1, 2011. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this standard on its consolidated results of operations and financial condition.
