Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On April 10, 2018, Koppers Inc. (“Koppers” or the “Company”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Koppers Holdings Inc. (“Holdings”), signed the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) by and among Koppers, Cox Industries, Inc., a South Carolina corporation (“Cox”), each of the shareholders of Cox (the “Selling Shareholders”), and R. Michael Johnson, as the shareholder representative (the “Shareholder Representative”). The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement closed on the same day. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Koppers merged with and into Cox, with Cox surviving the merger as a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Koppers (the “Acquisition”). Cox and its subsidiaries are engaged in the business of manufacturing and distributing outdoor wood products for the commercial, industrial, and utility markets.

The Acquisition closed for an aggregate cash purchase price of approximately $200 million (the “Purchase Price”). The Purchase Price reflects estimated closing-date adjustments and is subject to certain post-closing adjustments. The Merger Agreement specifies that both Koppers and the Selling Shareholders will file a 338(h)(10) tax election that will allow Koppers to establish a new tax basis for the assets acquired and receive increased cash tax benefits through future tax amortization. The Purchase Price was funded by borrowings under the Credit Agreement (as defined below).

Under the Merger Agreement, Koppers and the Selling Shareholders made representations, warranties, and covenants customary for a transaction of this nature. The Merger Agreement also provides that each of the Selling Shareholders will indemnify Koppers for certain liabilities associated with the business of Cox and contains other indemnification provisions which are believed to be customary for a transaction of this type. The indemnification obligations relating to certain representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement only apply with respect to aggregate liabilities in excess of a specified deductible, are subject to a cap, and are only effective for specified periods of time. A portion of the Purchase Price equal to $10 million in the aggregate will be held in escrow to satisfy payments due relating to post-closing adjustments of the Purchase Price and to secure certain indemnification obligations of the Selling Shareholders. Such amounts will be disbursed pursuant to the terms of the escrow agreements entered into by and among Koppers, the Shareholder Representative, and an escrow agent in connection with the closing of the Acquisition. Further, Koppers has purchased a representations and warranties insurance policy, under which it may seek coverage for certain breaches of representations and warranties of the Selling Shareholders contained in the Merger Agreement, subject to certain exclusions and retention amounts.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be a complete statement of the parties’ rights and obligations under the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the Acquisition is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to Holdings’ Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2018.

Second Amendment to Credit Agreement

On April 10, 2018, Koppers entered into the Second Amendment and Joinder (the “Second Amendment”) to the Credit Agreement, dated February 17, 2017, with certain lenders, the guarantors party thereto, PNC Bank, National Association, as administrative agent, and the other agents party thereto, as previously amended by the First Amendment to Credit Agreement, dated February 26, 2018 (collectively, the “Credit Agreement”). Pursuant to the Second Amendment, the Credit Agreement was amended to, among other things: (1) add a term loan component in the amount of $100 million with 10% annual amortization and a mandatory prepayment provision, (2) reset the accordion provision to allow increases (in one or more increments) in the maximum revolving credit principal commitment or term loan commitment under the Credit Agreement by up to an aggregate amount of $100 million, (3) revise certain financial statement covenants and other covenants, including increasing exclusions from the definition of Capital Expenditures and revising the definition of Consolidated EBITDA to increase the permitted add back of non-recurring, non-cash charges and transaction expenses incurred in connection with permitted acquisitions, (4) reset the credit facility termination date to the fifth anniversary of the effective date of the Second Amendment, (5) increase permitted unsecured indebtedness subject to certain financial statement covenant limitations tested at the time of incurrence, and (6) update certain definitions. All other material terms, conditions, and covenants with respect to the Credit Agreement remain unchanged.

The foregoing description of the Second Amendment does not purport to be a complete statement of the parties’ rights and obligations under the Second Amendment or the transactions contemplated by the Second Amendment. The foregoing description of the Second Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Second Amendment, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to Holdings’ Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2018.
