CEVA LOGISTICS ISSUES STATEMENT ON STATUS OF EGL OFFER

Amsterdam, May 18, 2007 -- CEVA Group Plc, an Apollo Management VI, L.P. portfolio company, today issued the following statement:

On Wednesday evening, May 16, CEVA was advised that the Special Committee of the EGL Board had unanimously recommended the CEVA proposal of $46.00 per share in cash as a Superior Proposal, as defined in EGL's current merger agreement at $38.00 per EGL share with the Crane group, led by EGL's CEO, James R. Crane. According to EGL, the Special Committee did not receive a revised proposal from the Crane group prior to the close of business on Wednesday, the time at which the right to match CEVA's superior proposal expired. EGL issued a press release on Thursday morning, May 17 confirming that CEVA's offer had been deemed superior and that the Special Committee has recommended that the full Board of Directors terminate the merger agreement with the Crane group and enter into an agreement with CEVA.

As of 9:00 pm EDT Thursday evening, the CEVA Group has received no formal response from the EGL Board. CEVA awaits such a response and has extended its offer until the close of business on Friday, May 18, 2007. At this time, it is uncertain whether CEVA's offer and the recommendation of the Special Committee will be accepted by the EGL Board.
