CNOOC Limited Completes Acquisition of Additional Equity Interest in the Tangguh LNG Project

(Hong Kong, May 13, 2004) - CNOOC Limited (together with its subsidiaries, the "Company"; NYSE: CEO, SEHK: 883) announces today that its wholly-owned subsidiary, CNOOC Muturi Limited, has completed its acquisition of an additional 20.767% interest in the Muturi Production Sharing Contract (PSC) from BG Group for a total consideration of US$105.1 million (including costs incurred attributable to this portion of PSC ownership interest since the effective date of January 1, 2003).

The transaction was previously announced on February 2, 2004. This additional purchase will increase CNOOC Limited's interest in the Muturi PSC from 44.0% to 64.767%, and its interest in the Tangguh LNG Project will increase from 12.5% to 16.96%.

"This further investment in the world-class LNG project is another milestone in executing our natural gas strategy," said Mr. Fu Chengyu, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. "We remain bullish on the future prospects of the Tangguh Project, and believe that our enlarged position in the project will provide attractive returns to CNOOC Limited."

Notes to Editors:

TANGGUH - BACKGROUND

Following the completion of this acquisition, CNOOC Limited will have a 64.767% interest in the Muturi PSC and a 42.4% interest in the Wiriagar PSC, equivalent in total to a 16.96% interest in the Tangguh LNG project, based on independently certified proved reserves. As per independent reserves assessment carried out by consultants DeGolyer and MacNaughton in August 1998, proved (1P) gas reserves in the Wiriagar, Berau and Muturi PSCs were certified at 14.4tcf and proved and probable (2P) gas reserves were certified at 18.3 tcf.

In September 2002, the Tangguh partners announced the sale of 2.6 mtpa of LNG under a 25-year contract to the proposed Fujian importation terminal in China. In August 2003, Tangguh signed Heads of Agreements with SK and POSCO for the sale of up to 1.35mtpa of LNG into Korea. Marketing of the remainder of Tangguh's capacity continues and the first production is scheduled to begin in 2007.
