Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 2, 2009, Spartan Stores, Inc. (the "Company") entered into an interest rate swap transaction with Wachovia Bank, N.A. ("Wachovia") as part of the Company's risk management strategy.

Under the terms of the swap, the Company has agreed to pay Wachovia a fixed interest rate of 2.08%, and Wachovia has agreed to pay the Company a floating interest rate (determined with reference to the 1-month LIBOR) on a notional amount of $45 million for a period beginning on January 6, 2009. The parties will settle any difference between the fixed rate and the floating rate on a monthly basis.

The substantial economic effect of the swap is to convert the variable interest rate payable on $45 million of the Company's debt to an effective fixed rate of 3.33%, which consists of the fixed 2.08% rate plus the current interest rate spread of 1.25% over the one-month LIBOR (based upon current excess availability) that the Company pays on revolving debt pursuant to the Loan and Security Agreement dated December 23, 2003, as amended, by and among the Company and certain subsidiaries as borrowers and the agent and lenders named therein (the "Loan and Security Agreement").

The interest rate swap expires concurrently with the Loan and Security Agreement on December 24, 2012.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

10.1	Swap Transaction Confirmation.
