RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this prospectus or incorporated herein by reference, the following risk factors should be considered carefully in evaluating our business before purchasing the shares offered in this prospectus.

THE CONVERSION OF THE CONVERTIBLE DEBENTURE AND THE EXERCISE OF THE RELATED WARRANTS COULD RESULT IN SUBSTANTIAL NUMBERS OF ADDITIONAL SHARES BEING ISSUED.

On April 11, 2001, we issued a Convertible Debenture to Global Capital Funding Group, L.P. ("Global Capital") in the original principle amount of $1,000,000 together with a warrant to purchase 100,000 shares of our common stock with a current exercise price of $.89 per share. The Convertible Debenture converts at a floating rate based on the lower of (i) $0.8631 and (ii) a 20% discount to the market price of our common stock. As a result, the lower the price of our common stock at the time of conversion, the greater the number of shares that Global Capital will receive.

To the extent the Convertible Debenture is converted or accrued interest is paid in shares of common stock, a significant number of shares of common stock may be sold into the market, which could decrease the price of our common stock and encourage shorts sales by selling securityholders or others. Short sales could place further downward pressure on the price of our common stock. In that case, we could be required to issue an increasingly greater number of shares of our common stock upon future conversions of the Convertible Debenture, sales of which could further depress the price of our common stock.

WE HAVE HAD A HISTORY OF OPERATIONAL LOSSES AND EXPECT OUR LOSSES TO CONTINUE.

We commenced our telecommunications business in early 1998. For the years ended October 31, 2000 and 1999, we recorded net losses from continuing operations of approximately $11.1 million and $3.8 million, respectively, on revenues from continuing operations of approximately $8.6 million and $3.1 million, respectively. For the nine months ended July 31, 2001, we recorded a net loss before extraordinary items of $1.7 million on revenues of approximately $3.4 million. The loss for 2000 was primarily attributable to startup cost associated with establishing our facilities based operations both domestically and internationally, and costs associated with the relocation of our corporate headquarters from Dallas, Texas to Los Angeles, California. The loss in fiscal 1999 was primarily attributable to the marketing costs associated with establishing our distribution channels, and research and development costs associated with development of our VIP Card(TM) product.

As we continue to substantially increase our distribution network and customer base, and develop our private VoIP network, we may continue to experience losses.

OUR SUCCESS IS DEPENDANT ON OUR ABILITY TO RECRUIT AND RETAIN KEY MANAGEMENT AND TECHNICAL PERSONNEL.

Our success depends to a significant extent on our ability to attract and retain key personnel. In particular, we are dependent on our senior management team and personnel with experience in the telecommunications industry and experience in developing and implementing new products and services within the industry. Our future success will depend, in part, upon our ability to attract and retain key personnel.

IF WE ARE UNABLE TO OVERCOME THE RISKS INHERENT IN EXPANSION, OUR BUSINESS WILL FAIL.

On November 2, 1999, we acquired substantially all of the assets of Dial-Thru International Corporation, a California corporation, and subsequently assumed the name for our corporation. Following the acquisition, the focus of our business changed away from the prepaid telecommunications market toward being a global IP communications company providing connectivity to international markets experiencing significant demand for IP enabled services. Accordingly, we have a limited operating history upon which an evaluation of our prospects in this industry can be based. We intend to expand our VoIP network and the range of enhanced telecommunications services that we provide. Our expansion prospects must be considered in light of the risks, expenses and difficulties frequently encountered by companies in new and rapidly evolving markets. To address these risks, we must, among other things:

- respond to competitive developments;
- succeed in our marketing efforts; and
- upgrade our products, services and technologies.

We cannot assure you that we will be successful in addressing the risks we face or that we will be successful in our proposed expansion activities. The failure to do so would have a material adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

Edgar Filing: DIAL THRU INTERNATIONAL CORP - Form S-3/A

WE WILL NEED ADDITIONAL CAPITAL TO PURSUE OUR BUSINESS OBJECTIVES.

To fully implement our business plan, we will need to raise additional funds within the next twelve months for capital expenditures and working capital. Because of our limited operating history and the nature of the Internet telephony industry, our future capital needs are difficult to predict. Our growth models are scaleable (meaning that growth targets may be generally adjusted in proportion to the availability of capital resources), but the rate of growth is dependent on the availability of future financing. Additional capital funding may be required for any of the following activities: capital expenditures; advertising, maintenance and expansion; sales, marketing, research and development; operating losses from unanticipated competitive pressures or start-up operations; and strategic partnerships and alliances. There is no assurance that adequate levels of additional financing will be available at all or on acceptable terms. Any additional financing could result in significant dilution to our existing stockholders. If we are unable to raise additional capital, we would not be able to implement our business plan which could have a material adverse effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

OUR STOCKHOLDERS MAY FACE LIQUIDITY PROBLEMS WHEN THEY SEEK TO SELL THEIR SHARES.

We currently do not meet the requirements to list our common stock on a national securities exchange or on either the Nasdaq National Market or SmallCap Market. The common stock trades only in the over-the-counter market with certain such trades reported on the NASD's OTC Bulletin Board. As a result, selling our shares may be more difficult because smaller quantities of shares may be bought and sold, transactions may be delayed and security analysts' coverage of us may be reduced. These factors may make it difficult or impossible for you to sell shares in a timely manner, if at all.

In addition, the Securities and Exchange Commission defines our stock as a "penny stock" because it has a market price of less than $5.00 per share. Consequently, a broker/dealer must make a special suitability determination for the prospective purchaser and have received the purchaser's written consent to the transaction prior to the sale. The "penny stock" rules may adversely affect the ability of broker/dealers to sell our shares and may adversely affect your ability to sell the shares in the secondary market.

WE MUST COMPLY WITH SIGNIFICANT GOVERNMENT REGULATION IF OUR BUSINESS IS TO SUCCEED.

The legal and regulatory environment pertaining to the Internet is uncertain and changing rapidly as the use of the Internet increases. For example, in the United States, the FCC is considering imposing surcharges or additional regulations upon certain providers of Internet telephony.

In addition, the regulatory treatment of Internet telephony outside of the United States varies from country to country. There can be no assurance that there will not be interruptions in Internet telephony in these and other foreign countries. Interruptions or restrictions on the provision of Internet telephony in foreign countries may adversely affect our ability to continue to offer services in those countries, resulting in a loss of customers and revenues.

New regulations could increase the cost of doing business over the Internet or restrict or prohibit the delivery of our product or service using the Internet. In addition to new regulations being adopted, existing laws may be applied to the Internet. Newly existing laws may cover issues that include sales and other taxes; access charges; user privacy; pricing controls; characteristics and quality of products and services; consumer protection; contributions to the Universal Service Fund, an FCC-administered fund for the support of local telephone service in rural and high-cost areas; cross-border commerce; copyright, trademark and patent infringement; and other claims based on the nature and content of Internet materials.

OUR MARKET IS EXTREMELY COMPETITIVE.

The market for our products and services is highly competitive. We face competition from multiple sources, many of which have greater financial resources and a substantial presence in our market and offer products or services similar to the services of ours. Therefore, we may not be able to successfully compete in our markets, which could result in a failure to implement our business strategy or adversely affect our ability to attract and retain new customers. In addition, competition within the industries in which we operate are characterized by, among other factors, price and ability to offer enhanced service capabilities. Significant price competition would reduce the margins realized by us in our telecommunications operations and could have a material adverse effect on us. In addition, many competitors have greater financial resources to devote to research, development and marketing, and may be able to respond more quickly to new or emerging technologies and changes in customer requirements. If we are unable to provide cutting-edge technology and value-added Internet products and services, we will be unable to compete in certain segments of the market, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGES MAY HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON US.

The industries in which we compete is characterized, in part, by rapid growth, evolving industry standards, significant technological changes and frequent product enhancements. These characteristics could render existing systems and strategies obsolete, and require us to continue to develop and implement new products and services, anticipate changing consumer demands and respond to emerging industry standards and technological changes. No assurance can be given that we will be able to keep pace with the rapidly changing consumer demands, technological trends and evolving industry standards.

WE ARE DEPENDANT ON CERTAIN STRATEGIC RELATIONSHIPS.

Our international business, in part, is dependent upon relationships with distributors, governments or providers of telecommunications services in foreign markets. The failure to develop or maintain these relationships could result in a material adverse effect on the financial condition and results of our operations.

THE LOSS OF A SIGNIFICANT CUSTOMER COULD CAUSE A REDUCTION IN OUR REVENUE AND STOCK PRICE

While our significant customers vary from quarter to quarter, a single customer accounted for approximately 15% of our revenues for the quarter ended July 31, 2001. The loss of one or more of our significant customers could result in a reduction of our overall revenue for a given period, which could result in a decrease to our stock price. We could lose this customer or other significant customers for any number of reasons including:

- the entrance into the market of significant new competitors with lower rates than us;

Edgar Filing: DIAL THRU INTERNATIONAL CORP - Form S-3/A

- changes in U.S. or foreign regulations; or
- unexpected increases in our cost structure.

WE HAVE NOT DECLARED DIVIDENDS ON OUR COMMON STOCK.

We have never declared or paid any cash dividends on our common stock and do not presently intend to pay cash dividends on our common stock in the foreseeable future.

THE PRICE OF OUR COMMON STOCK MAY BE SUBJECT TO VOLATILE CHANGES.

The price at which the shares of common stock trade is likely to be subject to significant volatility. The market for the common stock may be influenced by many factors, including the depth and liquidity of the market for our common stock, investor perceptions of us, and general economic and similar conditions.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, including the information incorporated by reference, contains forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify these statements by forward-looking words such as "may," "will," "expect," "anticipates," "believe," "estimate" and "continue" or similar words. Actual results could differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements as a result of the risk factors beginning on page 2 and other uncertainties, certain of which may be detailed from time to time in our periodic reports filed with the SEC.

As used in this Prospectus, unless the context requires otherwise, "we" means Dial-Thru International Corporation.

THE COMPANY

Dial-Thru is a facilities-based, global Internet Protocol (IP) communications company providing connectivity to international markets experiencing significant demand for IP enabled services. We provide a variety of international telecommunications services targeted to small and medium sized enterprises (SME's) that include the transmission of voice and data traffic and the provision of Web-based and other communications services. We utilize Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) packetized voice technology (and other compression techniques) to improve both cost and efficiencies of telecommunication transmissions, and are developing a private VoIP network. We utilize state-of-the-art digital fiber optic cable, oceanic cable transmission facilities, international satellites and the Internet to transport our communications.

VoIP is voice communication that has been converted into digital packets and is then addressed, prioritized, and transmitted over any form of broadband network utilizing the technology that makes the Internet possible. These technologies allow us to transmit voice communications with the same high-density compression as networks initially designed for data transmission, and at the same time utilize a common network for providing customers with data and enhanced Web-based services.

We primarily focus on markets where competition is not as keen, thereby giving us opportunities for greater profit margins. These markets include regions where the deregulation of telecommunications services has not been completed and smaller markets that have not attracted large multi-national providers. South Africa, Asia, and parts of South America offer the greatest abundance of these target markets.

Cooperating with overseas carriers and the incumbent, usually government owned, telephone companies, gives us better opportunities to engage in the co-branding of jointly marketed products, including IP-based enhancements that they have developed, rather than simply basing a strategy on pricing arbitrage. As a result, we are proactively invited to participate in, rather than reactively prevented from entering into, new markets.

Unlike many new VoIP carriers in the market today, we are focused on retail telecommunications sales to business customers, including enhanced product offerings, not just wholesale voice traffic. A portfolio of enhanced offerings provides us with the opportunity for higher profit margins and better customer loyalty.

In tandem with overseas partners, we are deploying a "book-end" strategy by targeting markets at both ends of international circuits. As an example, while cooperating with our partners to target the SME market in a selected foreign region, we also target corresponding expatriates and foreign owned businesses back in the US.

Cooperating with incumbent carriers in emerging markets also gives us the added benefit of being able to develop and exploit labor cost advantages not found in mature markets. For example, we plan to develop new and extremely low-cost call center applications that will tie into and enhance our new Web and VoIP applications. By relying on VoIP and IP, rather than traditional voice technology, we ensure that our network infrastructure is extremely cost-effective and state-of-the-art.

Our principal executive offices are located at 700 South Flower, Suite 2950, Los Angeles, California 90017, and our telephone number is (213) 627-7599.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
