PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Footstar, Inc. ( Footstar or the Company ) announced on August 7, 2003 that its Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 28, 2003 will not be filed by August 12, 2003 when it is otherwise due because its financial statements continue to be under review by the Company's external auditors, KPMG LLP. The Company continues to work with KPMG as it completes its audit and review of the Company's financial statements following the discovery last November of accounting discrepancies, which will require a restatement of the Company's financial results for the first half of 2002 and prior periods. After KPMG completes its review, the Company expects to release the results of the restatement, its audited financial results for fiscal 2002, and its results for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2003. The Company will file its Form 10-Q as soon as practicable.

PART IV NARRATIVE

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

The Company continues to work with KPMG as it completes its audit and review of the Company's financial statements following the discovery last November of accounting discrepancies, which will require a restatement of the Company's financial results for the first half of 2002 and prior periods. After KPMG completes its review, the Company expects to release the results of the restatement, its audited financial results for fiscal 2002, and its results for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2003.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Please refer to the Company's press release dated August 7, 2003, attached hereto.
