Richard Agnich presently manages personal investments through The Agnich Partners, Ltd., a family limited partnership. In a career at Texas Instruments Incorporated that spanned twenty-seven years, he shared responsibility for transforming the company from a diversified electronics conglomerate into a focused and digital signal processing and analog integrated circuit company. From 1988 until January 20, 2001, he served as Senior Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel of Texas Instruments, and he continued to serve as the Company's Senior Vice President and Secretary until his retirement on May 1, 2001. He is a member of the board of trustees of Austin College, and serves as Chairman of the Entrepreneurs Foundation of North Texas.

Steve Perkins has 31 years experience in the development and marketing of commercial software products. He is the co-founder, Executive Vice President and Communications Software Group President of Sterling Commerce Inc., an industry leader in business-to-business e-commerce and a unit of SBC Communications. At Sterling Commerce, he grew a division over seven years from revenues of $35 million and 150 domestic employees to one with revenues of $200 million and 1,000 employees worldwide, and transitioned that division through a spin-off from Sterling Software and subsequent acquisition. He also spent 16 years at UCCEL, where he was part of a team that created the first systems software package ever commercially sold to the IT industry.
