If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced by Juniper Networks, Inc. (the Company), the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has conducted an independent investigation into the Company's historical stock option practices and has reached a conclusion that the actual measurement dates for financial accounting purposes of certain stock option grants issued in the past differ from the recorded grant dates of such awards. As a result, the Company intends to restate its financial statements to record non-cash charges for compensation expense relating to past stock option grants. The Company is completing its preparation of, and its outside independent accounting firm is in the process of auditing, the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 (the 2006 10-K). Consequently, the Company is unable to file its 2006 10-K prior to the prescribed due date of March 1, 2007 without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company currently anticipates that the 2006 10-K will be filed on or before the 15th calendar day following the prescribed due date according to Rule 12b-25, together with its Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

The Company has not filed its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously announced, the Company anticipates that it will record additional non-cash charges for stock-based compensation expense of approximately $900 million, substantially all of which relate to options granted between June 9, 1999 and December 31, 2003. Additional details of the impact of these charges cannot reasonably be provided at this time, as the 2006 10-K and audit of periods covered by the 2006 10-K have not been finalized as of the date hereof.
