Item 1. Description of Registrant's Securities to be Registered.

GENERAL

The Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of Koger Equity, Inc. (the "Company") (the "Restated Articles of Incorporation") authorize the issuance of up to 100,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock"). As of December 19, 2001, there were 21,107,405 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding, and 8,534,457 shares of Common Stock in treasury.

The following description of the Common Stock set forth below is in all respects subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable provisions of the Restated Articles of Incorporation and the By-laws of the Company (the "By-laws").

Holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board of Directors"), out of funds legally available therefor. Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, holders of Common Stock will be entitled to share equally and ratably in any assets available for distribution to them, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Company and the preferential amounts owing with respect to any outstanding preferred stock. Although the Company is authorized to issue up to 50,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, as of the date hereof, the Company has not issued any such shares. The Common Stock possesses ordinary voting rights for the election of directors and in respect of other corporate matters; each share entitles the holder thereof to one vote. Holders of Common Stock do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors, which means that holders of more than 50% of all of the shares of Common Stock voting for the election of directors can elect all of the directors if they choose to do so and the holders of the remaining shares cannot elect any directors. Holders of Common Stock generally do not have preemptive rights, which means they have no right to acquire any additional shares of Common Stock that may be issued by the Company at a subsequent date. The outstanding Common Stock is fully paid and nonassessable.

RESTRICTIONS ON OWNERSHIP

For the Company to qualify as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), not more than 50% in value of its outstanding capital stock may be owned, directly or indirectly, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Code to include certain entities) during the last half of a taxable year, and its capital stock must be beneficially owned by 100 or more persons during at least 335 days of a taxable year of 12 months or during a proportionate part of a shorter taxable year. Therefore, the Restated Articles of Incorporation contain certain provisions set forth below restricting the ownership and transfer of the Common Stock.

Upon demand of the Company, each shareholder will be required to disclose to the Board of Directors in writing such information with respect to direct and indirect beneficial ownership of shares of the Company's capital stock as the Board of Directors may deem necessary to comply with provisions of the Code applicable to the Company or to comply with the requirements of any other taxing authority or governmental entity or agency.

Edgar Filing: KOGER EQUITY INC - Form 8-A12B/A

The limitations on ownership of the Company's capital stock may have the effect of discouraging tender offers or other takeover proposals. Such limitations do not apply to cash tender offers in which two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Common Stock not held by the tender offeror are tendered and accepted for cash. In view of the importance to the Company of its tax treatment as a REIT, the Board of Directors believes that such limitations on ownership are necessary.

The Restated Articles of Incorporation provide, subject to certain exceptions, that no person, or persons acting as a group, may beneficially own more than 9.8% of the shares of Common Stock outstanding at any time. In the event that the Board of Directors believes that the tax status of the Company as a REIT under the Code is jeopardized, including when a holder of Common Stock acquires in excess of 9.8% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock (the "Excess Common Stock"), the Board of Directors may, at its option, redeem a sufficient number of shares of Excess Common Stock to protect and preserve the Company's status as a REIT. Excess Common Stock is, unless waived by the Board of Directors, subject to redemption by the Company at a price per share equal to the average of the closing prices over a 20-day period prior to the redemption date (or, if no such prices are available, as determined by the Board of Directors). From and after the redemption date for any Excess Common Stock, the holder of such Excess Common Stock shall cease to be entitled to any distribution (other than distributions declared prior to the redemption date), voting rights and other benefits with respect to such Excess Common Stock, except the right to receive payment of the redemption price. Any transfer of shares of Common Stock that would prevent continued REIT qualification of the Company shall be void ab initio and any purported acquisition of shares of Common Stock resulting in disqualification of the Company as a REIT will be null and void.

SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN

On September 30, 1990, the Board of Directors adopted a Shareholder Rights Plan (the "Rights Plan"), pursuant to which the Company issued Common Stock purchase rights (the "Common Stock Purchase Rights"). Under the Rights Plan, one Common Stock Purchase Right was issued for each outstanding share of Common Stock held as of October 1, 1990, and one Common Stock Purchase Right attached to each share of Common Stock issued thereafter and will attach to each share of Common Stock issued in the future. The Common Stock Purchase Rights authorize the holders to purchase shares of Common Stock at a 50% discount from market value upon the occurrence of certain events, including, unless approved by the Board of Directors, an acquisition by a person or group of certain levels of beneficial ownership of the Common Stock or a tender offer for the Common Stock. The Common Stock Purchase Rights are redeemable by the Company for $.01 and expire September 30, 2010. One of the events which will trigger the Common Stock Purchase Rights is the acquisition, or commencement of a tender offer, by a person (an Acquiring Person, as defined in the Rights Plan), other than an Exempt Person (as defined in the Rights Plan), the Company or any of its subsidiaries or employee benefit plans, of 15% or more of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. An Acquiring Person who is not an Exempt Person, may not exercise a Common Stock Purchase Right.
