Tennessee Regulatory Authority votes to approve merger a message from Dickens

Dear BellSouth Colleague,

Today, the Tennessee Regulatory Authority voted to approve the AT&T/BellSouth merger with no conditions. This is an important step in the merger process, which will culminate with a decision by the Federal Communications Commission later this year.

This union combines two well-respected companies with complementary strengths and two great brands to create a communications industry leader in wireline, wireless and broadband solutions, as well as directory advertising and publishing.

This combination is good for our employees, our customers, and our shareowners and builds on the tradition of community service of both companies.

We will keep you informed of further developments in the merger process.

Marty Dickens

BellSouth-TN, President
