GAYLORD ENTERTAINMENT REPORTS
13D AMENDMENT FILING BY TRT HOLDINGS

NASHVILLE, TENN. (January 15, 2009) Gaylord Entertainment Company reported today that it has received an amended 13D filing from TRT Holdings in which TRT states that it intends to submit four nominees for election to the Company's Board of Directors, one of whom will be Robert Rowling, the Chief Executive Officer of TRT.

The Company continues to believe it is not in the best interest of all of its shareholders to give TRT effective control over the Company's long-term strategy without a full and fair price being paid to all Gaylord shareholders. TRT's filing today is the continued attempt by a competitor to control Gaylord Entertainment without paying a premium. Moreover, TRT's participation on the Gaylord Board would present a serious conflict of interest because TRT owns Omni Hotels, a chain that competes nationwide with Gaylord for meeting business and directly with Gaylord in three of its four principal markets - Dallas/Ft. Worth, Orlando and Washington, D.C.

The Company's Board and management team look forward to the opportunity of having their record evaluated - the Company has operated its business with the highest levels of integrity and the strongest commitment to good corporate governance; and the Company has developed the country's leading hotel brand dedicated to the convention and meeting business. Gaylord Hotels rank number one in Total Revenue per Available Room in the markets that they service, including those where they compete with Omni Hotels. Gaylord Hotels have demonstrated revenue growth that is above the industry's growth rate for the past three years. The Company would be happy to have the performance of Gaylord Hotels judged against the Omni Hotels with which they compete.

Gaylord Entertainment remains committed to providing long-term value to its shareholders by providing outstanding service to its customers.
