On January 10, 2005, VistaCare, Inc. (the Company) announced the appointment of David W. Elliot, Jr. as the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer (COO) and, in connection with the appointment, the Company entered into a Management Agreement with Mr. Elliot, which sets forth certain severance arrangements in the event of termination of Mr. Elliot's employment by the Company.

Under the Management Agreement, Mr. Elliot will continue to receive his then current salary, as well as health and life insurance benefits (or the full value thereof in cash), for 12 months after the date of his employment termination, if the termination occurs before a change in control of the Company and the termination is by the Company for any reason other than cause or Mr. Elliot's death or disability, or by Mr. Elliot for good reason, as such terms are defined in the Management Agreement. If Mr. Elliot terminates his employment for any reason within 12 months following the closing of a sale of the Company, as defined in the Management Agreement, he will be entitled to (1) receive his then current salary in bi-weekly installments, as well as health and life insurance benefits (or the full value thereof in cash), for 18 months after the date of his employment termination and (2) exercise, within 90 days of his employment termination, all vested options granted to him by the Company together with those options that would have vested had Mr. Elliot remained employed by the Company for the 18-month period following his termination. If Mr. Elliot's employment with the Company is terminated within two years following a change in control by the Company for any reason other than cause or his death or disability, or by Mr. Elliot for good reason, Mr. Elliot will (1) receive within 30 days of his employment termination a lump sum payment equal to two times his then current annual salary and (2) continue to receive for two years after the date of his termination the health and life insurance benefits he would have received had his employment by the Company not terminated (or the full value thereof in cash). In the event that Mr. Elliot's employment by the Company is terminated following a change in control and Mr. Elliot is entitled to the payment and benefits described above, the vesting of all options the Company has granted to Mr. Elliot to purchase shares of the its common stock will be accelerated in full. The Company's financial obligations to Mr. Elliot under the Management Agreement is contingent on the Company's receipt of an executed release from Mr. Elliot, releasing and discharging the Company indemnitees, as defined in the Management Agreement, from any and all known and unknown claims Mr. Elliot may have against such Company indemnitees. In addition, the Management Agreement provides that Mr. Elliot's employment by the Company is at-will and that nothing contained therein shall be construed as an employment contract.
